Prior Learning Assessment & Recognition (PLAR) for Mature Students

Assessments for
High School Credits

What is PLAR?

Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition (PLAR) is the formal evaluation and credit granting process whereby mature students may obtain credits for prior learning. Prior learning includes the knowledge and skills that adults have gained, in both formal and informal ways, outside of secondary school.

Who can apply for a PLAR Assessment?

A mature student who is:

1. Turning 18 before August 31 of the current school year; and
2. Enrolled in a credit program for the purpose of obtaining an Ontario Secondary School Diploma.

Is there a cost?

There is no cost for the PLAR Assessment once a student is registered in a credit course or program.

“I love the fact that I am able to get my high school credits while still working a full-time job and being a full-time wife and mom”.

— Tonya T.

Fast Track

High School Credits

The Fast Track program is designed for adult learners 18 years of age or older who are not currently enrolled in school who are interested in strengthening their academic skills and completing their high school diploma. Fast Track provides a supportive learning environment and intake process, with welcoming staff who can provide help with pathways planning and support the mature PLAR process.

Learn more at con-ed.ca

Students will receive supports to:

- Complete one credit (GLE30/GLE40 or GLS40)
- Build skills required to successfully complete Mature PLAR assessments
- Be assessed for life and work experiences for Grade 11 and 12 credits
- Plan for College, Apprenticeship, Work or University

The Fast Track Program is continuous intake

“Attending Archbishop Anthony Meagher CCEC has been an enriching journey filled with opportunity for growth and discovery. The diverse range of subjects offered, coupled with the supportive learning environment, has allowed me to explore my interests and develop a deeper understanding of the world around me. The dedicated teachers and staff provide guidance and encouragement every step of the way, fostering a sense of community and collaboration. I am grateful for the invaluable experience this school has given me, shaping me into a confident individual prepared for future success.” — Lilian N.
