Prior Learning Assessment & Recognition (PLAR) for Mature Students

Assessments for
High School Credits

What is PLAR?

Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition (PLAR) is the formal evaluation and credit granting process whereby mature students may obtain credits for prior learning. Prior learning includes the knowledge and skills that adults have gained, in both formal and informal ways, outside of secondary school.

Who can apply for a PLAR Assessment?

A mature student who is:

1. Turning 18 before August 31 of the current school year; and
2. Enrolled in a credit program for the purpose of obtaining an Ontario Secondary School Diploma.

Is there a cost?

There is no cost for the PLAR Assessment once a student is registered in a credit course or program.

“The guidance office, teachers and main office are very knowledgeable and helpful. I would recommend friends and family to attend this school because I had a wonderful experience and was able to achieve the prerequisites and credits needed to get into college.” — Chantal S.

Fast Track

The Fast Track program is designed for adult learners 18 years of age or older who are not currently enrolled in school who are interested in strengthening their academic skills and completing their high school diploma. Fast Track provides a supportive learning environment and intake process, with welcoming staff who can provide help with pathways planning and support the mature PLAR process.

con-ed.ca

High School Credits

Students will receive supports to:

- Complete one Learning Strategies credit
- Build skills required to successfully complete Mature PLAR assessments
- Be assessed for life and work experiences for Grade 11 and 12 credits
- Plan for College, Apprenticeship, Work or University

The Fast Track Program is continuous intake

Correspondence Courses

Flexible Learning with Correspondence Courses

- Learn at your own pace and on your own schedule
- Earn high school credits or upgrade existing marks
- Access support from a guidance counselor

“This program is a shining example of how language education can be both academically enriching and personally transformative. The professionalism of the administration, the quality of instruction, and the supportive atmosphere all contribute to a program that I would highly recommend to any student or family considering a secondary-level international language course. The teacher’s dedication and the program’s overall excellence have made a lasting impact. It’s more than a class—it’s an opportunity to build confidence, expand horizons, and develop skills that will benefit students for years to come.” — Russell R.

“Archbishop Anthony Meagher CCEC is a wonderful school that truly cares about its students. The teachers are kind, patient and willing to help. I have gained more confidence in reading and writing, and I feel proud about how far I have come. The school provides a safe and welcoming environment where everyone is encouraged to do their best.” — Lovin K.
