

What is a Living Classroom?

LIVING CLASSROOM

A model of learning and practice for healthcare education alongside residents, families and team members in long-term care.

Everyone benefits!

Students build confidence and gain hands-on experience to grow their skills. Residents, families and team members enjoy the extra support, and often become mentors themselves.

The Living Classroom is a vibrant space where learning and caring grow together, every day.

RIA Schlegel-UW
Research Institute for Aging
Enhancing Life

cesba

www.livingclassroom.ca